

Biography

Rodney Monroe

Rodney graduated high school as the state of Maryland's all-time leading scorer with over 3,000 points. He gained a scholarship to North Carolina State University, where Monroe leads in one significant statistical category. The Baltimore native finished his career as the program's all-time leading scorer with 2,551 points, breaking David Thompson's record. He was drafted by the Atlanta Hawks and played there for the 1991-92 season. After the NBA, Monroe played 14 years in Europe. Currently, Monroe is the Director of Basketball Operations and Head coach of men's basketball at SouthLake Christian Academy in Huntersville, North Carolina, where he resides with his wife, Judy, and three sons, Myles, Madison, and Christian.

Amateur Achievements:

- Twice voted to the McDonald's All-American team
- Two-time State of Maryland Player of the Year
- Finished high school as the State of Maryland's All-time leading scorer with over 3,000 points
- Inducted into the Washington County Sports Hall of Fame
- Inducted into first Baltimore Catholic League Hall of Fame class 2011
- Inducted into St. Maria Goretti Athletic Hall of Fame 2014

College Career:

- Won first-team All-ACC honors 1989 and '91
- All-ACC Tournament Performer 1988 and '91
- Two-time All-American 1990 and '91
- ACC Player of the Year 1991
- ACC Leading Scorer 1991
- NC State University's All-Time Leading Scorer
- Named to the ACC 50th Anniversary Men's Basketball Team 2002
- Honored as an ACC Basketball Legend 2010
- Inducted into NC State Athletic Hall of Fame 2018

Professional Career:

- NBA Atlanta Hawks 1991-92
- 15 year professional career in US and Europe
- Italy, Spain, Greece, Israel, Australia, Philippines